

BALANCES ON THE BOOKS OF THE THIRD AUDITOR.

LETTER

FROM THE

FIRST COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

A report of the Third Auditor, under the act for the prompt settlement of the public accounts.

DECEMBER 11, 1834.

Read, and laid upon the table.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Comptroller's Office, December 3, 1834.

SIR: In compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress, passed the 3d March, 1809, entitled "An act further to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury, War, and Navy Departments," and of the act of 3d March, 1817, entitled "An act to provide for the prompt settlement of public accounts," I have the honor to transmit, herewith, the following documents received from the Third Auditor of the Treasury:

1. Statement of such officers as have not rendered their accounts within the year, or have balances unaccounted for, advanced one year prior to the 30th September, 1834.

2. Statement of accounts in his office which have remained unsettled, or on which balances appear to have been due more than three years prior to the 30th September, 1834.

3. An abstract of moneys advanced prior to the 3d March, 1809, on the books of the late accountant of the War Department, and which remained to be accounted for, on the books of the Third Auditor, on the 30th September, 1834.

I also transmit, herewith, copies of two letters of the Third Auditor, which accompanied the above documents.

I have the honor to be,

With great respect,

Your obedient servant,

JOS. ANDERSON,

Comptroller.

Hon. JOHN BELL,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Third Auditor's Office, December 2, 1834.

SIR: I have the honor to enclose to you, herewith, pursuant to your instructions, statements as follows, viz.

1. Statement of such officers as have not rendered their accounts within the year, or have balances unaccounted for, advanced one year prior to 30th September, 1834, as appears by the books of the Third Auditor, furnished in pursuance of the directions of the First Comptroller of the Treasury, agreeable to the 13th section of the act passed 3d March, 1817, entitled "An act to provide for the prompt settlement of public accounts."

2. Statement of accounts in the office of the Third Auditor which have remained unsettled, or on which balances appear to have been due more than three years prior to 30th September, 1834, furnished in pursuance of the directions contained in the 2d section of the act of 3d March, 1809, entitled "An act further to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury, War, and Navy Departments."

3. An abstract of moneys advanced prior to 3d March, 1809, on the books of the late accountant of the War Department, and which remained to be accounted for, on the books of the Third Auditor of the Treasury, on the 30th September, 1834.

With great respect,

Your obedient servant,

PETER HAGNER,

Auditor.

JOSEPH ANDERSON, Esq.,

First Comptroller.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Third Auditor's Office, December 2, 1834.

SIR: In transmitting to you the statement of accounts unsettled, or on which balances appear to be due more than three years on the 30th September last, arising from moneys advanced prior to 3d March, 1817, I have the honor to remark that it amounts to less than the similar statement furnished for the year 1833 by $20,591 50; and of this sum the amount refunded, and which is to be carried to the surplus fund, is $3,458 23.

With great respect,

Your obedient servant,

PETER HAGNER,

Auditor.

JOSEPH ANDERSON, Esq.,

Comptroller.

STATEMENT of the names of such officers as have not rendered their accounts within the year, or have balances unaccounted for, of advances made one year prior to September 30, 1834, as appears by the books of the Third Auditor, furnished in pursuance of directions from the First Comptroller of the Treasury, agreeably to the 13th section of the act passed March 3, 1817, entitled "An act for the more prompt settlement of the public accounts."

Names and rank.	Amount.	Remarks.
L. N. Morris, lieutenant, -	$21 02	Quartermaster's department. Balance on settlement September 26, 1834, which he has been requested to refund, under date October 3, 1834.
John Mountfort, major, -	139 44	Transportation of officers' baggage, received by him; charged to his personal account, by decision of the Second Comptroller, of which Major Mountfort has been informed, and requested to refund the amount.
E. B. Birdsall, lieutenant, -	8 68	Quartermaster's department. Balance April 16, 1834. He was reported for stoppage, in August, 1833, to the Second Comptroller, for $47 98; he has since been credited with $39 30, leaving due $8 68.
E. G. Mitchell, lieutenant, -	91 91	Quartermaster's department. Suspended vouchers have been returned, on which $58 12 will be allowed to his credit.
J. J. B. Kingsbury, lieutenant,	395 32	Quartermaster's department. October 28, 1834. Balance $447 36, since which $52 04 has been brought to his credit, leaving $395 32 due the United States, arising in part on disallowed items and errors, and on vouchers suspended, requiring correction and further explanation. He claimed to have closed his account.
B. R. Alden, lieutenant, -	14 38	Quartermaster's department. Balance, September 20, 1834, arising on a suspended voucher; he has promised to obtain the evidence required as early as practicable.
George Caldwell, lieutenant, -	5 88	Subsistence. Balance May 31, 1833. He refunded what appeared to be the balance by his own statement, but, having omitted to bring forward this sum, the balance due on his account for the preceding quarter still remains due, of which he has been informed.
George S. Drane, captain, -	62 09	  Quartermaster's department. Officers' transportation.   These balances arise on vouchers not allowed on the settlement of his accounts, the particulars of which were explained to him in a statement transmitted to him in July, 1834.
Do. do. -	6 62
Matthew Duncan, captain, -	78 88	Pay and subsistence of rangers. Balance, November 18, 1834, arises on vouchers disallowed to the amount of $23 63, and others suspended to amount of $55 25, as explained in a statement forwarded to him November 22, 1834.
Charles H. Larned, lieutenant,	132 00	Officers' transportation. Amount paid to him for transportation of baggage, under a first order for duty, to which he was not entitled. Reported to Second Comptroller for stoppage April 26, 1834.

STATEMENT—Continued.

Names and rank.	Amount.	Remarks.
Gouverneur Morris, lieutenant,	$4 79	Army transportation. Arising on vouchers disallowed in the settlement of his account in the quartermaster's department, of which he has been informed.
James W. Penrose, lieutenant,	5 01	Quartermaster's department. Balance June 6, 1834. Reported for stoppage to the Second Comptroller September 26, 1834.
F. L. Alexander, lieutenant, -	44 50	Army transportation. Balance on settlement August 4, 1834. He has been written to, and informed in what way to refund this balance.
James Engle, lieutenant, -	1,022 25	Barracks at Green Bay. Balance on settlement October 14, 1834. Disallowances and suspensions have been made in the settlement of his accounts. On removing the objections to suspended vouchers, it is possible the balance under this head may be reduced.
J. J. Ulman, captain, &c., -	289 50	Militia of Illinois and other States. Balance February 1, 1834. He had rendered vouchers on which he claimed further credits; but requiring corrections, they were sent to him, and have not yet been returned.
E. Trenor, captain, -	38 84	Officers' transportation. Balance September 16, 1834. This balance was reported to the Second Comptroller for stoppage on the 26th September, 1834.
William G. McNeill, captain,	53 00	Officers' transportation. For which he was reported for stoppage to the Second Comptroller in September, 1834.
A. W. Thornton, lieutenant, -	1,068 51	Officers' transportation. The balance on settlement of his quartermaster's account, April, 1834, is $1,421 51, of which $1,068 51 is out of advances in 1832 and 1833. He acknowledged a balance due the United States of $1,300 25, differing from the official balance $121 26, arising out of disallowances, a statement of which has been furnished.
D. H. Vinton, lieutenant, -	11 46	Quartermaster's department. Balance May 29, 1834. To refund this balance he was reported for stoppage to the Second Comptroller September 26, 1834.

Balance on settlement November 21, 1828. Roads and canals. Balance on settlement July 29, 1829. For disbursements for deepening and clearing out the harbor of Sackett's Harbor, which he has been requested to refund. These advances were made on account of expenditures for military services during the late war, the accounts for which have been rendered and examined. Further vouchers and explanations are necessary prior to a final settlement; the respective States remain, therefore, debited with the money, though their exhibits show expenditures to a larger amount.
